

GalaxE. CEO Introduces President at Jobs Forum

GalaxE.Solutions Chairman and President Tim Bryan participated in the recent "Insourcing American Jobs" forum at the White House, hosted by President Obama and Vice President Biden. Following the forum, Bryan introduced the President for his remarks to government and private sector leaders encouraging companies to insource and invest in America to help rebuild the economy.

In the "Insourcing American Jobs" forum the President, Vice President, members of the Cabinet and other senior administration officials met with GalaxE. and other business leaders to discuss how they have brought jobs back to and/or made additional investments in the United States. Other topics included why locating a business within the United States is a competitive advantage and ideas to motivate other companies to take similar steps to insource American jobs.

Bryan focused on GalaxE.Solutions' business model, "Outsource to Detroit," which positions Detroit as a viable alternative for the next-generation of high-level IT, as opposed to sending ▲ GalaxE.Solutions CEO Tim Bryan introduced President Obama at the "Insourcing American Jobs" forum at White House earlier this year.

IT work offshore, as the need for IT solutions becomes more sophisticated. In the forum, Bryan explained how on-shoring in Detroit helps ensure cost, and more importantly, quality benefits and innovation, while repatriating jobs to the United States. ■